

Application to be considered for Departmental Awards and Scholarships

Department of Landscape Architecture University of Florida

There are scholarships and funds available through the University of Florida Department of Landscape Architecture for student travel and merit or need-based scholarships thanks to the generosity of alumni and other donors to the Department. The Department is currently seeking applicants for funds to be awarded as part of the academic year. Note that in some cases restrictions have been placed on the use of the award by the original donor, and that a final award will be contingent on those criteria being met.

To be considered for funds to be dispersed this coming year, please check the following, sign, and return documentation based on the instructions below.

_____ I would like to be considered for Departmental scholarships and awards.

AND

_____ I have attached a copy of my most recent resume.

For need-based awards only:

_____ Undergraduate students: I have a FAFSA form on file.

_____ Graduate students: I have a FAFSA form on file OR will submit a completed determination of need form.

_____ International students (both undergraduate and graduate): I currently qualify for financial need or aid and will submit a completed determination of need form.

Submission:

- This signed application and a resume should be submitted no later than December 10 to Michael Facundo- facundom@ufl.edu .
- Determination of need forms, if required, should be submitted no later than December 10 to Michael Facundo- facundom@ufl.edu .

By signing this application and submitting the requested materials, I am confirming that I would like to be considered for Departmental scholarships and awards for the current academic year.

Signature and Date