

Rinker School of Construction Management
University of Florida ACE
Mentoring Scholarship

Amount: $4,000

Scholarships Available: 1

Eligibility Requirements

- Must have been a participant of an ACE mentoring program and submitted an ACE Scholarship application while in High School.
- Indicate your ACE participation on your UF Freshman application as “additional activities to prepare you for college.”
- Student must have successfully been admitted to the University of Florida as an incoming freshman with a declared major of Construction Management.
- Student must have indicated an interest in a career in construction management on their UF application.

Conditions

- Student will receive $500 during the freshman year, $500 during the sophomore year, $1,500 during their junior year, and $1,500 during their senior year.
- Student must register as a Construction Management major in the Rinker School. If a student changes their major from Construction Management, the remainder of the scholarship is forfeited.
- Students must meet the CM Universal Tracking criteria (coursework and GPA) each semester and be accepted into upper division by their first semester Junior level year
- Students must complete 24 cr. hrs. total during Fall and Spring semesters only
- Students will need to graduate on time (within 8 semesters/4 years)/No summer money provided/internships highly encouraged