The minimum standards that must be met before a student will be eligible to be reclassified into the Rinker School of Construction Management as a freshman or a sophomore (Pre-CM status) are as follows:

Student must have fewer than 48 credit hours completed, including current registration.

- Must have SAT score or ACT score.
- Must have tracking GPA for current tracking term (see back of form)
- Must have the three critical tracking courses (see back of form)

Please answer the following questions:

What is your current major?

Why are you changing majors?

Why are you choosing Construction Management as your major?

Who or what provided information about the Construction Management Program?

_____Current student  ____Previous graduate  _____Parents or family  _____Printed literature

_____Other (please explain)_________________________________________

_____Advisor (Name/Department)_________________________________________

To the best of my knowledge I meet the requirements above, have read over all the information included in this form (front and back) and the package handed to me, and also I understand that meeting the minimum standards stated above doesn’t guarantee admission into the upper division program in the Rinker School.

STUDENT’S SIGNATURE  DATE

Student must submit an application to enter into upper division when completing the last semester of prerequisite coursework. (Fall deadline – March 1, Spring deadline – September 1). Applications available: https://dcp.ufl.edu/rinker/academics/undergraduate/construction-management/current-students/ (then select Upper division application). Note: You can only apply to upper division twice.
