Prerequisites: BCN 3027C – Principles of Construction Management

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Study of the organization and functioning of the construction industry based on principles of contract law, and the application of contract law to construction contractual relationships.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS: Class lectures, videos, quizzes, discussion assignments, exams.

PURPOSE OF COURSE: This course is the first in a series of Construction Management courses and is designed to teach basic legal principles involved in the building of a construction project. “Contracts” provides a general understanding of contractual relationships in the construction industry, and the most common forms of contractual relationships between the owner, designer, contractor, subcontractor and supplier. This course will include a close examination of basic principles of CONTRACT LAW, the AIA contract documents, and certain alternative forms of contracts. The relationship of each contracting party to the other will be identified and remedies to balance the risks involved in construction will be discussed.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES (CLOs): Upon completion of the course students will be able to demonstrate their ability to: write a basic contract based on legal principles; be able to understand the various construction contracts; understand the roles and legal obligations/requirements of the procurement process; understand construction lien law and the contractor’s rights, responsibilities and remedies; warranties, and bonds, and be aware of their importance; knowledge regarding labor law; be aware of the ethical questions that arise in construction contracts.

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Dean of Students Office (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation. You must submit this documentation prior to submitting assignments (discussion, term paper, extra credit) or taking the quizzes or exams. Accommodations are not retroactive, therefore, students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations.

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT: Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code at http://www.dso.ufl.edu/students.php. The Honor Code will be applied in the class. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity. On all work submitted for credit by students at the university, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” It is Rinker School policy that any incident of cheating, copying, or other attempts to deceive will be penalized by course failure.

STUDENT EVALUATIONS: Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/.

NETIQUETTE, COMMUNICATION COURTESY POLICY: All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats. Detailed guide is available at http://teach.ufl.edu/wp-content/uploads/2012/08/NetiquetteGuideforOnlineCourses.pdf
GETTING HELP WITH E-LEARNING WEBSITE: In the case you have technical difficulties with e-Learning in Canvas, please contact the UF Help Desk at: Learning-support@ufl.edu; (352) 392-HELP - select option 2; https://lss.at.ufl.edu/help.shtml. If your technical difficulties will cause you to miss a due date/time, you MUST report the problem to the UF Help Desk before the due date/time.

CELLPHONES. Cellphone use is not allowed in classrooms. Use of cellphones during class will discount attendance. Use of cellphones during an exam will result in failing the exam.

LAPTOPS & TABLETS. These devices should only be used to take notes related to lectures. Use of these devices for social media or any other unrelated purposes during class hours will result in a penalty of 10 points for every incident.

COMMUNICATION
- Use the e-Learning in Canvas environment to send an email to the instructor and teaching assistant. Do not e-mail the course instructor and teaching assistant outside of the e-Learning in Canvas system because emails received outside of e-Learning will not receive a response. Please allow 36 hours for a response to your email. The instructor and teaching assistant reserve the right not to respond to course inquiries on the weekend.
- You are responsible for addressing grades/omissions within one week of the grade being posted on e-Learning in Canvas. After one week, the grade/input stands for the class regardless of cause or circumstance.

Note from the instructor: The syllabus represents my current plans and objectives. As we go through the semester, those plans may need to change to enhance the class learning opportunity. Such changes, communicate clearly, are not unusual and should be expected.
