COURSE OVERVIEW

Course Description:

Introduces significant theories concerning the interaction of people with environments at various scales. Also explores the corresponding applied environmental design implications of these theories. This survey of normative theories, philosophies and doctrines of environment behavior serve as an evidence based to support research-based design decisions.

Attributes: Satisfies 2,000 words of writing requirement.

Course Goals:

- Demonstrate an understanding of relevant theories and their application to interior design.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the value of interior design in contemporary society.
- Exhibit awareness of the influence of furnishings, objects, materials, and finishes on human well-being.
- Utilize a variety of reliable sources of information and research evidence about environment and behavior issues to inform design solutions.
- Demonstrate an understanding of methods for gathering human-centered evidence regarding design (e.g., pre-design and post-occupancy).
- Express ideas effectively in oral, written and visual communication.

GRADES AND GRADING POLICIES

This course follows UF's policies for grading. Information regarding UF's grades and grading policy can be found at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/grades-grading-policies/>

GRADING RULE

Reading assignments and related activities	20%
Quizzes	20%
Papers	60%
Total	100%

Grades will be assigned as follows:

A = 93-100	B+= 87-89.9	C+= 77-79.9	D+=67-69.9
A-= 90-92.9	B = 83-86.9	C = 73-76.9	D = 63-66.9
	B- = 80-82.9	C- =70- 72.9	D- =60-62.9
			E<60

Information on current UF grading policies for assigning grade points is located here: link to the university grades and grading policies.

COURSE WORK

Reading assignments and related activities: Students will be given tasks to reinforce comprehension of the subject matter and to provide opportunities for application. These include a wayfinding exercise (50 points) and 3 trend reports (30 points each), totaling 600 words.

Quizzes: Students will take four quizzes during the course to assess reading comprehension.

Papers: Students will be required to write two papers of varying length (total = 1,400 words) during the semester to evaluate their understanding and application of concepts covered in the course.

WRITING REQUIREMENT

This is a course designed for achieving the UF Writing Requirement (WR) and you will write at least 2,000 words during the course. Enhancing writing skills is an important component of this course. The Writing Requirement (WR) ensures students both maintain their fluency in writing and use writing as a tool to facilitate learning.

Writing course grades have two components. Professors will indicate whether students met the writing requirement AND will assign a course grade. Therefore, to receive writing credits students must receive a minimum grade of 'C' (2.0) AND satisfactory completion of the writing component. It is possible not to meet the writing requirement and still pass the class. Students should review their degree audits after receiving their grades to verify receipt of credit for the writing requirement. The instructor will evaluate and provide feedback on all of the student's written assignments with respect to grammar, punctuation, clarity, coherence, and organization.

Writing support is available through the university's Writing Studio www.writing.ufl.edu.

See <https://registrar.ufl.edu/courses/writing-requirement.html> for more information on UF writing requirements.

STUDENT TECHNICAL SUPPORT SERVICES

For assistance in resolving technical issues, visit the helpdesk website or call the UF Help Desk at 352-392-4357.

COURSE POLICIES

Academic Integrity:

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Honor Code. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Attendance & Participation:

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies. Click here to read the university attendance policies.

Attendance is essential to the learning process. Students must be on time for each class session and present for the entire class to be marked present, and attendance is mandatory.

Two absences will be tolerated without penalty. Beginning with the third unexcused absence, students' final grade will be reduced 5% for each unexcused absence. Six or more unexcused absences will automatically result in failing the course.

Tardiness:

Arriving on time for each class and staying for the entire length of the class is expected. Arriving more than 10 minutes late or leaving more than 10 minutes early three times will equal one unexcused absence.

Assignment Due Dates:

All assignments - completed or incomplete - must be turned in on the due date and will be graded as they stand. The right to make an exception will be reserved only in extreme cases (due to emergencies). A student wishing to submit a late assignment must provide the instructor(s), in writing, with a statement of why the assignment is late and the instructor(s) will determine whether or not to accept the late assignment. If the instructor(s) decide to accept the late assignment for a reason other than a documented emergency, 10 points will be deducted for each day (or partial day) that the assignment is late. Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies. Click here to read the university attendance policies.

Classroom Climate:

Equitable participation in this class requires the use of inclusive language, methods, and materials. Students are expected to use inclusive language in written and oral work, and to respect diversity in viewpoints expressed by others. Students are also encouraged to identify language, methods, and materials used in this course that do not contribute to an inclusive classroom climate.

Laptops, Cell Phones, Tablets:

Students may bring mobile devices to class and use them during the period for course-related purposes only. Students are not permitted to use them during quizzes or exams, except for the purpose of taking in-class quizzes or exams, as permitted.

Student Work:

The Department of Interior Design reserves the right to retain any student work completed in the curriculum for accreditation purposes.

Canvas:

The syllabus, course assignments, due dates, additional reading material, grades and other course-related information will be available in Canvas. You are responsible for checking Canvas regularly to track assignments, due dates, etc. You must post your completed assignments to Canvas by the start of class on the due date unless otherwise instructed. Please email the assignments to the instructor, on time, if you experience technical difficulties with Canvas. Students need to download Mozilla Firefox web browser in order to use Canvas properly.

Disputed Grading:

Any objection regarding grading of any assignment/paper/exam etc. must be submitted in writing within 2 weeks of receiving the grade. You must include an explanation of why you think your answer was correct or why you should have received a higher grade.

Incompletes:

For information about incomplete grades for this course, see <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/grades-grading-policies/#gradestext>

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Special Accommodations:

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center. Click here to get started with the Disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Course evaluations:

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Click here for guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via ufl.bluer.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students here.

Software use:

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Student privacy:

There are federal laws protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments. For more information, please see: <http://registrar.ufl.edu/catalog0910/policies/regulationferpa.html>

Our class sessions may be audio visually recorded for students in the class to refer back and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.

COVID-related policies:

In response to COVID-19, the following policies and requirements are in place to maintain your learning environment and to enhance the safety of our in-classroom interactions.

- You are required to wear approved face coverings at all times during class and within buildings. Following and enforcing these policies and requirements are all of our responsibility. Failure to do so will lead to a report to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution.
- This course has been assigned a physical classroom with enough capacity to maintain physical distancing (6 feet between individuals) requirements. Please utilize designated seats and maintain appropriate spacing between students. Please do not move desks or stations.
- Sanitizing supplies are available in the classroom if you wish to wipe down your desks prior to sitting down and at the end of the class.
- Follow your instructor's guidance on how to enter and exit the classroom. Practice physical distancing to the extent possible when entering and exiting the classroom.
- If you are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms (Click here for guidance from the CDC on symptoms of coronavirus), please use the UF Health screening system and follow the instructions on whether you are able to attend class. Click here for UF Health guidance on what to do if you have been exposed to or are experiencing Covid-19 symptoms.
- Course materials will be provided to you with an excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work. Find more information in the university attendance policies.
